Conditions

Inspectors will remain on the list for 1 year after being added. After which, they will need to renew their directory status.

Only currently certified playground Canadian Certified Playground Inspectors, or those in the process of recertification, will be published on this list. Should your certification expire, CPSI is obligated to remove your listing from this list. If your name has been removed from the list, you will need to re-register and pay the administration fee to be added to the list.

CPSI will update the Certified Inspectors Directory at least quarterly in a calendar year. We cannot guarantee we will update the directory immediately upon a specific participants completion of a recertification exam or other course and exam that changes a participant certification expiry date.

Participants are responsible for notifying CPSI regarding any information changes required on the Certified Inspectors Directory. This notification should specifically refer to a change for the Certified Inspectors Directory and not a general change of address.
